He Labors Greatly and His Speech Proves Decided Disappointment,

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.) NEW ORLEANS, LA., April 26.—Richmond, forever a powerful voice, cried out in the United Confederate Voterans' convention early in the morning session today, and it was the keynote to an overwhelming sentiment in favor of Richmond for the next meeting. So much enthusjasm pervaded the vast assembly that mone desired to hear reports read. All that were offered were received and ordered printed, including the important report of Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, chaplainin-general, in regard to the Battle Abbey. Abbey. General Stephen D. Lee, with wise strategy, took up the question early, and when he announced that invitations were in order, there were many cries of Richmond, Richmond, When Mayor McCarthy stepped forward and was introduced by General Lee, there was unbounded en-NOT AN ANSWER TO BAILEY by General Lee, there was unbounded enthusiasm.

Mayor McCarthy, with voice pitched high above the general ciamor and confusion, soon caught the ear of the convention, and before he was through with a five-minute speech, those in the rear crowded down the adsless to the platform to hear and to cheer. He declared he wanted them to aid in unwelling the greatest monument ever erected in the Souththat to Jefferson Davis, being created under the auspices of "The Daughters," who had done what the veterans themselves could not do. He wanted them to see the women who nursed the sick and dying of every State in the Confederacy, and to walk the streets of the city that for four years formed the bulwark of the cause for which they fought. He presented in attractive form the Jamestown Exposition and what it stood for and would represent. He declared that Richmond did not wish to invite them to a commercial exhibition of her greatness, but to present the historical and romanic side. He declared the people of Richmond were unanimous in their desire to have them, and that, "after all, the best thing we have is a cordial old Virginia welcome." (From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26 .- Sena tor Spooner's speech on the rate bill to-day was disappointing. He labored greatly, and was at no time in the fine form of former occasions when he has delighted the Senate and the galleries by the cogency of his arguments, his epigrammatic style, and his brilliant methods of summing up facts. His first speech on this measure disappointed his hearers. His heart is not in his task of some other reason is assignable for his almost complete failure to enlist and almost complete failure to enlist and hold the attention of his colleagues and the galleries. The press gallery, gen-erally crowded when the senior Senator from Wisconsin is making a set speech, was at times almost deserted to-day dur-ing the course of the speech of Senator Spooner.

The speech was intended as a reply to the one delivered by Senator Balley about two weeks ago, in which the Senator from Texas argued for the Ilmitation of the powers of the Federal courts in from Texas argued for the limitation of the powers of the Federal courts in the matter of granting injunctions suspending the decisions of the Interstate Commission, pending review by the courts. The immediate floor space surrounding the desk of Senator Spoonerwas occupied by big leather-bound volumes of law reports, and he read copiously throughout his speech. To the unprejudiced listener it appeared that the Wisconsin Senator failed utterly to mitted to President Baer and his associates to-day.

The decision to call a convention of the miners of the three districts was reached at a meeting of the general anthracite scale committee, held here to-day. The session was lengthy, and while those who participated were reticent, it is known that there was a wide divergence of opinion as to the form of the propositions to be presented to the operators.

President Mitchel to-hight made public two propositions, together with a request for another joint conference, submitted by the miners' scale committee to President Baer and his associates. The first proposition asks for an increase in wages ranging from 5 to 15 per cent., according to the wages now received. The second proposition asks for an an advance equal to ten cents per ton upon the total production of coal, to be added to the wages of employes and apportioned in such percentage as may be agreed upon.

GOVERNOR PARDEE DEFENDS MILITIA

In Conference With Officials He Resents Request for Withdrawal of State Troops. Dr. Devine's Plan for Distribution of

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—What to do with the money that has been contributed to the relief of San Francisco's homeless people was the question that to-day received careful consideration by those now engaged in relief work. So many inquiries have come to the heads of the various departments, civil and military, asking for and by whom the meney contributed would be expended, that the Associated Press was asked to communicate to the country the assurance that every dollar would be put to the use for which it was intended. At moon to-day the distribution of food to the city of San Francisco was formally turned over to the United States army. Under this system many abuses that, have prevailed in the giving out of supplies by various local and outside relief organizations, acting independently, would be discontinued.

The impression which seems to have prevailed in eastern cities, that there was friction over the concentration and distribution of Red Cross supplies, was corrected to-day by Dr. Devine, general agent of the Red Cross Society, who repeated his assertion of yesterday that absolute harmony prevailed, and that the work was carried on to the entire satisfaction of everybody.

The reports from the leading hospitals at the Presidio and at Golden Gate Park to-day showed that the number of patients is fewer than yesterday. The decrease is probably due to the fact that the privilege of free transportation over the railroads to any part of the State expired at noon to-day, and many of the patients who were suffering from minor injuries and complaints left the hospitals in time to take advantage of the generosity of the railroads.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Governor Pardee visited San Francisco to-day and attended a conference of Major-General Greely, Mayor Schmits, Dr. Devine, of the Red Cross, and members of the Citithe Red Cross, and members of the Citizens' Committee.

Governor Pardee brought up the request of Mayor Schmitts and his committee for the withdrawal of the autional guard from San Francisco. The Governor spoke highly in favor of the national guard, and referred to the splendid service performed in the war with Spain. He said he regarded the request for withdrawal as a reflection on a well organized and highly efficient body of men. The Governor said he was indignant over the attitude taken against the suard, and the charges preferred against them. In fact, he was so indignant that he thought it best not to make any further remarks.

Had Made No Charges.

Mayor Schmitz replied that he and his committee had not made any charges against the guard. On the contrary, they had thanked the Governor for the militia's services. If charges had been made they were made by outsiders. The object in making the request for the withdrawal of the troops was to concentrate the control of the city in the Federal troops and to prevent confilet of orders. the control of the city in the Federa troops and to prevent conflict of orders. The State troops have not yet been withdrawn, and the meeting adjourned without any amouncement that they would' be.
